How to Get to Zion

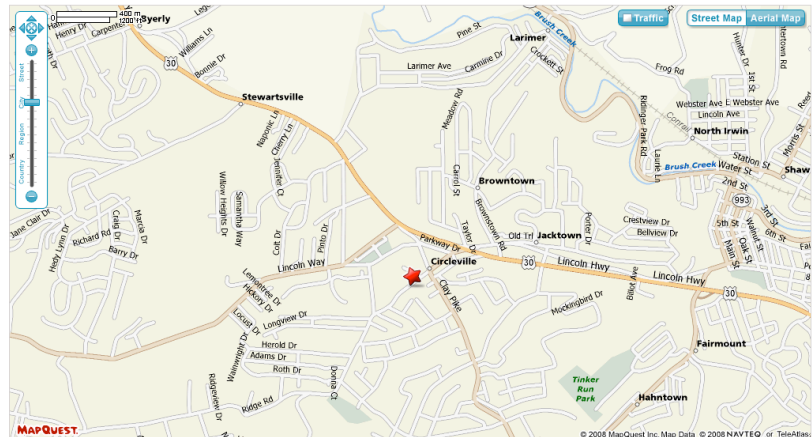

Zion is centrally located between the City of Pittsburgh and Greensburg. Several major highways and roads are close including the Pennsylvania Turnpike and US Route 30 (also known as the Lincoln Highway). We are approximately 20 minutes from Downtown Pittsburgh.

Please feel free to call the church or Pastor Leonatti if you want to review the directions prior to coming.

We look forward to meeting you and sharing with you the gift of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Directions to Zion from Pittsburgh, the North and the West

1. Take Parkway East (376 East) to Route 30 East.
2. Follow Route 30 East to North Huntingdon.
3. Make right hand exit at light (just past Norwin Towne Square) onto Clay Pike Road.
4. At next light, turn right onto Robbins Station Road. (Shirley's Funeral Home is on the near right corner.)
5. Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church is just over the crest of the hill on the left hand side.
6. Parking is available to the left of the church or across Robbins Station Road.

Directions to Zion from the South and East

1. Take PA Turnpike (I-76) to the Irwin exit (exit 7).
2. Take Route 30 west about 3 miles to light at top of the hill. Subway will be on the left and Hamilton Buick is on the right.
3. Make a left at the light onto Robbins Station Road.
4. Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church is located about 0.5 mile on the left hand side.
5. Parking is available next to the church or across Robbins Station Road.
